

FENCERS CLUB SATURDAY FENCING ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

The goal of the Fencers Club Saturday Enrichment Fencing Program is to teach fencing to students from the Metro NYC area while imparting all of fencing's transferable skills for learning and discipline, across a wide range of racial, socio-economic, and cultural divides.

The Program takes place at our state-of-the-art facility, and our School Coaches and mentors conduct the class in a small-group setting. Student-fencers will engage in exciting and fast-paced fencing practices that consist of a variety of exercises including: warm-ups, footwork, fencing-related games, bladework drills and supervised bouts.

Coaches' bios:

Denis Tolkachev: Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, Denis attended Ohio State where he was a three-time All-American and named Scholar-Athlete. After graduation, he became an assistant coach at OSU, leading the Buckeyes to 110 collegiate victories and a national title in 2004.
