ITEM 17: ONE WEEK OF FENCERS CLUB SUMMER DAY CAMP

COMMUNITY OLYMPIC
DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM
FENCERS CLUB

Item Details:

This weekly summer program (July 5-29, 2016, choose one week) is a great chance for students ages 6-15 to combine mornings of academic enrichment activities with afternoons of fencing practice taught by our elite athletes and Olympians.

The Day Camp's daily sessions are comprised of two parts: the morning program is designed to promote academic risk-taking and the development of creative thought processes under the supervision of experienced instructors who are actively engaged in research and teaching. Morning activities include: chess, creative writing, math games, logic puzzles, bridge construction and organic gardening. The afternoon fencing program is taught by our scholar-athletes who are highly proficient in teaching fencing to students of varied abilities and experiences.

Estimated Value: $600
Opening Bid: $200

ITEMS 18-20: FENCING LESSONS WITH FENCERS CLUB MASTER COACHES

Item 18: 3 Lessons and 5 Group Classes with Epee Coach Alexey Cheremsky

Coach Alexey was born in Ukraine and received his degree from the Ukrainian State University of Physical Education and Sport. After coaching in Kiev, Alexey moved to Israel where he was the National Team coach from 2000-2005. He then moved to the U.S. and was named the Cadet and Junior National Team. He has trained top-3 Junior world fencers, 7 NCAA medalists, and numerous US Cadet and Junior Team members.
